Introduction

If you are a Christian wanting to make money online it can be hard to find an opportunity that aligns with your faith. One way of doing this is to create your own products such as e-books. This allows you to mesh the product to fit into your personal standards. You are then promoting not only a product that aligns with your faith but also something you can be proud of.

Writing an e-book is tough. The process is long and there are many decisions you have to make along the way. But writing is just half the job. One of the best tools to use when working on a project as large like writing an e-book is a checklist. It helps you figure out what you should be doing, where you're heading and how far along in the process you are. Here's a checklist I found, created by people who are experienced in e-book writing and marketing. They've allowed me to share it with you. Download ebook writing & marketing checklist

To help in your journey towards creating an informational product, the people behind FaithfulBloggers.com, Kelly and Courtney, have created a list of 101 Christian themed e-book ideas. There are quite a few different topic categories including social media, parenting, church, and business. It is our hope that with this list, you will find a subject you are passionate about, write an e-book or special report, and then release the e-book or special report to help others in the Christian community.

Closing

Picking a topic to write an information product about is often the hardest part of the process. Hopefully one of these 101 Christian Themed E-Book Topics sparked an idea in your mind as to what kind of information product you can create. You don't have to be a great writer or a superb commentator; so don't let that delay your start.

The first step to writing an e-book should be prayer. It is important to ask God for His help and guidance in the creation of your information product.

A quick way to get started writing your e-book is to create an outline. This will help keep you on track and write quicker. Of course, if writing is not something you enjoy doing; you can always outsource it and hire a ghostwriter. A ghostwriter is a person who writes articles, blog posts, e-books, special reports but gives you the rights to use that content as your own. Another option would be to use PLR content.

PLR stands for Private Label Rights and usually comes in the form of article packs. When you purchase an article pack on a certain topic you are purchasing the right to use those articles as your own. You can rewrite or the edit the articles in way you want. PLR can help jump start an e-book or special report quickly.

Finding good quality PLR can be hard to do, especially with content that is Christian based. One place to find some great Christian based PLR articles is Christian Mom PLR. They have a number of article packs available that are all based on Christian values. Some articles packs include Christian blogging, Christian homeschooling, Christian marriage, Bible Study, etc.

Some other good PLR resources:

- EasyPLR – EasyPLR sales a few article packs that are Christian themed.

- All Private Label Content – APLC sells PLR packages on a number of different topics: mom, green, Internet marketing, health. While they are not Christian based, the PLR articles can be easily modified to include a Christian angle.
- PLR.me – PLR.me sells Personal Development PLR packages. Again this PLR is not Christian based but can easily be modified.

If you use any of the topics listed in this special report to create an information product, please let us know. We would love to support your endeavors!
